NEWSLETTER
APRIL 2024

Happy 69th Anniversary!

On April 25th 1955, charter members Jay J. Gramlich, Celia Hubbard, Beryl Sullivan, Madge Davis, N. J. Guillet, Harlan Steph, Eldon Daves, F. R. Madera, Arthur F. Beyer, and F. F. Ewing, Jr. established the Midwestern State University Credit Union. A member- owned financial cooperative dedicated to providing services that support members' financial goals and help educate members in making decisions of their own financial affairs. Since the only owners are the members, this created a unique, self-help organization, controlled by the membership, with all benefits being returned to the members in the form of lower loan rates, higher dividends and improved services. They were committed to excellence in product quality and service while maintaining high standards of ethics and integrity and we strive to continue that to this day. We appreciate the continued support from our wonderful members and want to celebrate with you! Stop by the credit union Thursday, April 25th for some cookies! We hope to see you there!
